BABY SALE

There are a great many hungry hearted women who would attend a baby sale if babies were ever offered for sale, because there are a great many wives who love children and have been told by physicians that they can never hope to nurse a child of their own.

Some of these women who have used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for the cure of womanly ills have been made happy mothers as a result of the cure of womanly disease and the building up of the general health.

Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"I wrote to you some time ago to get information about my case," says Mrs. Mary Lee Flannery of Dryden, Va. "I was troubled with female weakness and pain. Received answer from you advising me to take Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I took two bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and found it did me good. I had been married four years and had no children; now I can say that our home is blessed with a little baby boy, born July 14th, by the help of God and your medicine. I praise your medicine highly."

"You can publish this letter if you wish."

FREE. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Gambled with Death.

Miss Beatrice McGuinness, a handsome and refined woman of 27, who lived in London, gambled with death on Friday and lost. The day before, in the presence of her landlady and another lodger, Miss McGuinness told her fortune with the cards. No matter how she cut and shuffled a black suit always turned up, and at last she announced to her unsuspecting companions that the cards foretold that "the police would be called to the house on account of a dark woman, who, through a man having proved false, would put an end to her life by poison."

Nothing was seen of her Friday, and at last the other occupants of the house became alarmed. The landlady went to her room, and, after knocking repeatedly and obtaining no answer, opened the door. Miss McGuinness lay unconscious on the bed, and by her side was an empty glass, at the bottom of which there remained some white sediment. A doctor was sent for, and by his advice the dying woman was taken to the Royal Free Hospital, where she lingered for six hours, and fulfilled the fate the cards had foretold. It was the dread of the London streets which drove Miss McGuinness to her death. At one time she was in possession of ample means, but they had dwindled. She had parted with nearly everything of value, and in a letter which was found in her pocket she stated that she would rather die than face the horror of the streets. A letter was found in which the woman alleged that a man in the city with whom she had been on intimate terms had broken off the friendship. He had been faithful while her funds lasted, but when her money was exhausted he had deserted her, and latterly all her letters to him had been returned. Miss McGuinness went to London from Manchester about three months ago, and took her room at Millman street, in the name of Mrs. Oakley. Apparently she had no occupation, but the people in the house were under the impression that she was a widow, and that she had been on the stage. Miss McGuinness was well educated, and had traveled a great deal.

Twelve Persons Drowned by Flood.

Halt of Watrous, New Mexico, has been destroyed by a flood and at least 12 persons have been drowned. Many persons were rescued from trees and house-tops. The greatest damage was around the junction of Mera and Sapello creeks. A rock crusher, an iron-bridge and much track at Watrous were washed away. The Gallinas river formed a new channel at Las Vegas. In the Gallinas Canon the dams of the Agua Pura Company broke, bringing a terrific flood on the city. The Montezuma Hot Springs track went out in many places. Half a dozen bridges were destroyed and the Montezuma bathhouses were partly carried away. For two blocks in Bridge street every business house was flooded. Gallinas Park is under water and the trolley line cannot be repaired for two weeks. One hundred thousand dollars will not cover the loss to the town and the railroad loss is equally great. Reports from the Rio Grande Valley, above and below Albuquerque, show that Valencia and Los Luntes were washed away, and several hundred families are homeless. The river swung to the east, cut a new channel, and poured a torrent through the two towns. No lives were lost. In Barola, a suburb of Albuquerque, 50 houses were destroyed. The damage at Los Cordales and Alameda, north of Albuquerque, will amount to several hundred thousand dollars.

Saved from Mob.

Carl Getchel, a young white man, was shot and killed yesterday at Bellaire, Ohio, opposite Wheeling, W. Va., by Jack Terry, a well-known negro. Immediately following the killing a great crowd gathered and joined in the chase of the negro, who was captured within half an hour on the outskirts of the city. There were cries of "Kill him! Kill him!" from hundreds of throats, but Officer Goods and Marshal Mahone, who soon came to the assistance of the arresting officer, drew their revolvers and held the crowd at bay until other officers arrived, when a cordon was formed, and amid jeers and threats the murderer was taken to the city jail, where he is now confined. Last night the excitement in Bellaire was general, and there were fears of lynching. Getchel was popular and his friends are crying for vengeance. Getchel and several friends were sitting in Cherry alley when Terry, who lived in a near-by shanty, came out and made insulting remarks, saying the alley was exclusively for colored people and demanding that Getchel and his companions leave. The latter refused, and warm words followed, Getchel inviting the colored man to the commons to settle their differences in a fist fight. Terry made no response except to pull his revolver and commence shooting. Three shots were fired, the second penetrating the left breast just over the heart, and Getchel fell dead.

White Man Lynched.

The first lynching of a white man ever reported in South Carolina occurred at Kershaw, in that State, Saturday night, when John Morrison, who killed Will Floyd, that afternoon was taken from jail by an enraged mob of citizens and lynched. Morrison killed Floyd because Floyd refused to give him change for ten cents. When Floyd was asked for the change and replied that he did not have it, Morrison immediately shot him down. Trouble was feared as soon as the crime was known. Governor Heyward was asked for assistance, and troops were coming on a special train, but the mob did its work before the troops got there. Morrison had a bad record. He had killed three men in the past few months, the last being a negro, whom he killed without the least excuse.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

No one who is acquainted with its good qualities can be surprised at the great popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It not only cures colds and grip effectually and permanently, but prevents these diseases from resulting in pneumonia. It is also certain cure for croup. Whooping cough is not dangerous when this remedy is given. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. It is also pleasant to take. When all of these facts are taken into consideration it is not surprising that people in foreign lands as well as at home, esteem this remedy very highly and very few are willing to take any other after having once used it.
